The Head of Main Street and our Business Men. The present Council is tacreling entitled to much credit for their endeavor to open up Main street, and should meet with prompt aid from all concerned, which is especially the business community. The WHE work has seen presented to a point where ally proit should not be allowed to stop short of thankin in completion, and we, with the ballance of Univers 5 commutty, hope it will not. In the spring to get up the before the Council set the work in motion It without w was thought best to see what bonds could be permits negotiated for this especial work, and a com- their : mittee circulated a petition upon which regular business men agreed to take twelve $100 WHI E bonds, and pay the cash. Upon this the work | prospe was commenced, and ale other available mone means used up before the bunds were Issued. | work the bonds agreed for. The Council is in a have dilema; shall the work stop? is a pertinent | selvequestion to all interested. The Council are peril; determined that it shall not, if they can | W1 help it; and they can only contrive upon essethe payment of the bonds agreed for. Shall day the work go on? Let those who have agreed | to take bonds answer.
